I SPY: FIREFIGHTER

How many objects do you see?

FIREFIGHTERS STUDY BUILDINGS AND STREETS IN THEIR AREA SO THEY KNOW THE FASTEST WAY TO HELP.

FIRE GEAR HAS TO BE CLEANED SPECIALLY TO WASH AWAY DANGEROUS SMOKE AND CHEMICALS.

FIREFIGHTER FUN FACTS

FIREFIGHTERS PRACTICE RESCUING PEOPLE IN FAKE SMOKE ROOMS TO STAY CALM IN REAL EMERGENCIES.

FIREFIGHTERS WORK 24-HOUR SHIFTS SO THEY'RE ALWAYS READY TO HELP, DAY OR NIGHT.

THE AIR TANK FIREFIGHTERS WEAR LETS THEM BREATHE FOR ABOUT 20-30 MINUTES IN SMOKE.

A FIRE ENGINE CAN WEIGH 30,000-40,000 POUNDS! THAT'S HEAVIER THAN 10 PICKUP TRUCKS!

YOUNG INVENTORS!

LOOK AT ALL THESE AMAZING KIDS! THEY HAD IDEAS, TURNED THEM INTO REAL PRODUCTS, AND EVEN EARNED MONEY TO SAVE AND INVEST IN THEIR FUTURES. YOUR IDEAS ARE VALUABLE AND POWERFUL TOO. THIS COULD BE YOU ONE DAY!

A young entrepreneur named Mo amazed the investors with his handmade bow ties. He started making bows because he loved dressing up and wanted something unique to wear. Mo showed that confidence, creativity, and hard work can turn a fun idea into a real business. The investors were impressed by his charm and big personality. His story reminds kids that being yourself can help your ideas stand out and grow! 🎀🚀

12-year-old Jack Bonneau showed everyone that kids can be real entrepreneurs. Jack learned how businesses work and confidently shared his ideas with the investors. He proved that age doesn't matter when you're willing to learn, practice, and speak up. The investors were impressed by his leadership and determination. Jack's story encourages kids to believe in their ideas and take bold steps. Your creativity could lead to something amazing too! 🚀💡

In this episode of Shark Tank, a 10-year-old inventor impressed the investors with a special baby spoon she designed herself. The spoon helps babies eat more easily and safely, making mealtime less messy and more comfortable. She didn't just have an idea she tested it, improved it, and shared it with confidence. The investors were amazed that someone so young could turn a simple problem into a real product. Her story shows that kids can be inventors too if they stay curious and creative. Maybe your next idea could be the next big invention! 🚀🌟
